GENERAL'S WIFE AND CHILDREN ARE BURNED

MRS. PERSHING AND HER THREE DAUGHTERS MET DEATH IN FLAMES TODAY.

(Associated Press)
San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 27—Mrs. John J. Pershing, wife of Brigadier General Pershing, was suffocated to death with her three little daughters in her quarters at Presidio, San Francisco, early today. Warren, aged five, survives. The bodies were badly burned. An explosion of a lighted kerosene lamp is believed to have been the cause of the fire. Mrs. Pershing was the daughter of Senator Warren of Wyoming and her husband is at El Paso in command of the United States troops on the western border.

Another theory is that the fire resulted from live coals in a grate fire. Gen. Pershing's career has been one of the most remarkable in the army records.

City Of Dixon Is Sued For $1,000 By Mrs. A. Moore

Alleged Defective Walk Caused
Her To Fall And Injured
Her Limb

A damage suit against the City of Dixon was started this morning in the circuit court by Mrs. Anna C. Moore of Third street through her attorney, John E. Erwin. The amount asked in the bill is $1,000.

Only the praecipe in the case has so far been filed and hence the grounds on which she bases her claim is not given. Most of the city officials had no knowledge whatever of the case. From what can be learned it appears that on the evening of July 29 last the plaintiff was walking on Fourth street and when a short distance west of the corner of College avenue fell because of what is asserted to have been a defect in the walk and injured her limb. The case will probably be tried during the September term of court.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK TRAIN NEAR STREATOR

CREW OF BURLINGTON FREIGHT
FOUND DYNAMITE UNDER TRESTLE

That the Streator freight which goes through Tampico every day was not blown up recently was all due to a lucky find of the stick of dynamite and the lighted fuse by a construction train crew which discovered the plant and unearthed the plot before any damage was done, according to Mrs. Nellie Goebel, wife of one of the train crew and a daughter of Robert Collins of Tampico.

The stick of dynamite and the fuse were placed on a long, high trestle which spans a ravine at least 100 feet deep near Streator. The trestle is hidden by a sharp curve in the track and is on down grade. Had the dynamite not been found a short time before the Streator freight passed over the trestle, the train running at good speed would have been blown up and then dropped 100 feet into the ravine and undoubtedly Mr. Goebel and the rest of the crew killed.

No reason is assigned for the attempt to wreck the train other than a possible grudge held against the train crews by foreigners on being refused passage without fares or tickets.

PART OF INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS COMMISSION WANTS LIMIT PUT ON BIG FORTUNES

INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION IN SESSION AND CHAIRMAN WALSH

A recommendation that $1,000,000 be fixed as the limit of the fortune that may be inherited under the law and that any remaining portion of an estate revert to the public is the crowning feature of a report by the United States commission on industrial relations. The commission, headed by Frank P. Walsh, chairman, was appointed to inquire into the causes of industrial unrest and was composed of three representatives each of the employers, the employed and the general public. The commissioners were unable to agree on a single report, but it is said that none of the reports given out can properly be called a "majority" report. One report finds that the causes of industrial unrest group themselves almost without exception under four main sources: 1. Unjust distribution of the wealth and income. 2. Unemployment and denial of opportunity to earn a living. 3. Denial of justice in the creation, in the adjudication and in the administration of law. 4. Denial of the right and opportunity to form effective organizations. With the making of the report the commission passed out of existence. The pictures show the commission in session, with John D. Rockefeller, Jr., in the witness chair, and Chairman Walsh.

FLOUTED WILL OF PRESIDENT

(The Associated Press)
Washington, Aug. 27—The responsibility for the strike of coal miners in Colorado in 1913 and 1914 for the disorder and suffering that followed is placed squarely on the shoulders of operators in a report by George P. West, made public today by the Commission on Industrial Relations.

The Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, controlled by John D. Rockefeller, is declared to have been the leader in formulating and carrying out strike policies. Mr. Rockefeller and his son, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., are charged, first, with the selection of incompetent and reactionary agents to serve as executive officials in this company, and second, with giving their heartiest endorsement and support to these officials after they had taken action that precipitated the worst of the troubles.

Mr. Rockefeller, Jr., is charged with having approved measures to coerce the state government of Colorado and with having flouted the will of the President of the United States.

Praised Lawbreakers
The report says:
"During all the seven tragic and bitter months, that preceded Ludlow, Mr. Rockefeller wrote a letter after letter in enthusiastic praise of men whose acts during this period had precipitated a reign of terror and bloodshed. It was only when the Gary, Ind., Aug. 27—Just as the police and other investigators had about determined last night that the Rev. Edmund A. H. Kayser of Gary was murdered because of bitterness growing out of his Napoleonic financial methods and his congregational squabbles a report "leaked" from the inner office of the Gary police chief that less than an hour before his death the pastor had been closeted in his home conspiring against shipment of munitions to the allies.

Miss Lillian O. Freese, a Chicago stenographer, questioned by Chief Heintz, was reported to have given information that on the evening of the tragedy she had accompanied Attorney Charles J. Tomomanczy to the pastor's home and that the men had there conferred on plans to frustrate further shipment of contraband supplies, which are manufactured in quantities in the Gary region. The lawyer is said to be at the head of a private and secret "embargo committee."

U. S. Revenue Is $42,000,000 Less Than Expected

Receipts For Fiscal Year Were Greatest In Nation's History

(Associated Press)

Washington, Aug. 27—Figures today submitted show that the fiscal year which ended June 30 produced the greatest total internal revenue receipts in the history of the government which with the income tax from individuals is nevertheless $42,000,000 under the amount estimated by the framers of the income tax law.

The aggregate receipts, including corporation and individual taxes, were $415,000,000 against $380,000,000 the year before. New York leads the states by millions with Pennsylvania and Illinois third.

REPARATION FOR LUSITANIA NOW IS POSSIBILITY

BERNSTORFF CONFERRED WITH LANSING THIS MORNING—
MADE BIG PROMISE.

MORE THAN MERE DISAVOWAL

United States Will Press for Clearing
Up of Whole Submarine Policy.

(Associated Press)

Washington, Aug. 27—Acting under instructions from Berlin, Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States, today notified Secretary of State Lansing that "full satisfaction will be given the United States for the sinking of the Arabic."

He explained that Germany will make more than a mere disavowal if it is found that the Arabic was sunk without warning.

On Lusitania, Too.

It is suggested, too, that perhaps Germany is also ready to make reparation for the Americans who were lost when the Lusitania was torpedoed and sunk; but that subject did not come up at today's half-hour conference between Bernstorff and Lansing.

Dispatches Agree.

It is known that Ambassador Gerard's dispatch agrees with Bernstorff's advice that submarine commanders had been instructed to attack no more peaceful merchantmen without warning.

Will Press Question.

The United States, however, will press for clearing up the entire submarine controversy before it will consider the Arabic and Lusitania incidents closed.

Count von Bernstorff believes that negotiations over the Arabic will be followed by negotiations regarding the Lusitania.

Washington, Aug. 27—The critical situation between Germany and the United States over the submarine issue is rapidly moving toward a settlement satisfactory to this government. Germany has given indisputable evidence that she has finally yielded to the principal demands of the United States government and will enter into an understanding with it in regard to future protection for Americans traveling on the high seas.

The favorable turn that has suddenly come in the situation applies not only to the case of the Arabic, but to the entire submarine controversy. Washington officials now confidently expect that the difficulties with Germany, which have harassed this government since back in May when the Lusitania was sunk, are about to be cleared away and a satisfactory agreement reached as to the future. This optimism is based on the public statement of Chancellor Bethmann-Hollweg on a report which the state department received from Mr. Gerard detailing an interview which he had with the officials of the Berlin foreign office and on statements made by Count Bernstorff, the German ambassador, in a conference with Secretary Lansing.

Believe Bernstorff Has Instructions.

There is reason to believe that instructions are about to be sent from Berlin to Ambassador von Bernstorff if they are not already on the way which will authorize him to take action with a view to reaching a final understanding with this government on the submarine issue.

To say that Washington authorities are elated over the unexpectedly favorable turn of events is putting it mildly. It is apparent that they regard recent developments as almost too good to be true. At the same time it is realized that a settlement of this acute issue by the president and the removal of the real danger that has confronted this government of being drawn into the European war will be a stroke of great importance, particularly to Mr. Wilson and the Democratic party.

German Chancellor's Statement.

The statement made by the German chancellor to which so much importance is attached by the United States was this sentence:

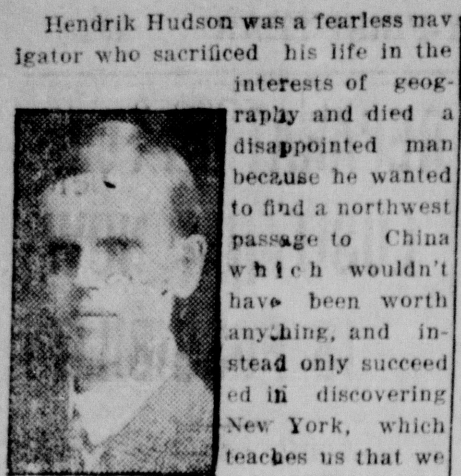

"Only after these circumstances (in regard to the sinking of the Arabic) have been cleared up will it be possible to say whether the commander of one of our submarines went beyond his instructions."

This is the first acknowledgment by the Berlin government that it has issued orders to its submarine commanders restricting their methods of operation. It is accepted here as evidence.

By GEORGE FITCH
Author of "At Good Old Siwash"
PONDEROUS PERSONAGES—HENRIK HUDSON

Hendrik Hudson was a fearless navigator who sacrificed his life in the interests of geography and died a disappointed man because he wanted to find a northwest passage to China which would not have been worth anything, and instead only succeeded in discovering New York, which teaches us that we should never be dissatisfied with our failures until we have had them assayed by posterity.

Hudson was an Englishman and was known as "Henry" and "Hank" by his boyhood playmates. He prepared himself to be a discoverer but the discovery business was so slow in England so he went over to Holland, where they changed his name to "Henrik," taught him to wear eleven-point pants and gave him a life job roaming the Arctic regions with flimsy ships manned by dissatisfied crews.

Hudson made four trips to America while hunting for the northwest passage. On his first trip he accumulated a vast assortment of frost bites and chilblains, consumed all his provisions and returned home empty-handed.

On his second trip he landed in a fine harbor and ascended a broad river for a long distance. However when the river petered out he was still several thousand miles from China so he named it the Hudson and departed. He mentioned his discoveries casually on his return home and the Dutch built New Amsterdam in consequence. If they had not relied so implicitly on unpreparedness as a defense the English would not have taken it from them and the colonists would probably have had to whip two nations to be free.

In 1616 Hudson sailed on his fourth trip. He forced his little ship into the vast and silent north with a daring only equalled by motor boat cranks of the present, and after great hardships entered an immense sea. Round and round this sea he sailed, trying to find the way to China, until his impatient crew dumped him into a small boat, together with his son and seven sick sailors, and went home.

Hudson was never heard from again but he has survived in history very tenaciously. He has had a bay, a territory, a river, a vast steamboat, a tunnel, seventy-nine apartment houses, a county and an automobile named after him—all because he died rather than to give up. In order to become immortal it is necessary to be tolerably contemptuous of life and comfortable in financial returns.

ROCKEFELLER LEADER IN STRIKE POLICIES

Ludlow massacre filled the press of the nation with editorial denunciation, when mourners in black silently paraded in front of his New York office, when cartoons in the conservative press pilloried him and his father before an angry public, that at last complacency gives way to concern in his telegrams and letters to Denver.

Of Mr. Rockefeller's responsibility the report says:

Mr. Rockefeller's responsibility has a significance beyond even the sinister results of his policy in Colorado. The perversion of and contempt for government, the disregard of public welfare, and the defiance of public opinion during the Colorado strike must be considered as only one manifestation of the autocratic and anti-social spirit of a man whose enormous wealth gives him infinite opportunity to act in similar fashion in broader fields. Mr. Rockefeller writes to Mr. Bowers: "You are fighting a good fight, which is not only in the interests of your own company, but of the other companies of Colorado and of the business interest of the entire country."

AT THE FAMILY

Owing to the persistent demand on the part of Dixon's theatre goers, the management of the Family theatre secured "A Trip to Toy Town," one of the successful attractions which appeared at the Family theatre last season for a return engagement. This is a production of unusual merit, which offers you wholesome entertainment for both young and old. Chief among the many surprises introduced are the Toy Town Cadets, the House That Jack Built, the Prancing Ponies, Old Doctor Pill and the Toy Town Revue. Ned Melroy, long a popular favorite in Dixon, heads the cast of clever and capable singers and dancers. To hear Mr. Melroy sing "Up-to-date Nursery Rhymes," is a treat not often enjoyed. The most fastidious theatregoer is assured of an amusing evening in witnessing "A Trip to Toy Town," which contains nothing but good clean "tom-foolery," surrounded by expensive scenic settings and gorgeous costumes.

For the benefit of the kiddies, assorted candies will be distributed among those attending the Saturday matinee. Bear this in mind and bring the children to the Family theatre where they will roam in the land of imagination, namely, "A Trip to Toy Town."

Pictures for tonight include: The Clutch of Circumstances, a two act Essanay drama; and Racker's Road Show, featuring Ham and Bud.

PRINCESS THEATRE

Tonight Manager Slothower has booked a picture of special interest entitled Shorty Inherits a Harem, in which Shorty Hamilton, the Broncho Hero, is featured in the funniest plight yet. Shorty traveling with a wild west show in India goes hunting and is captured by the natives. The other pictures are the Mutual Weekly showing the current events throughout the world. The last reel is a comic comedy entitled Father Love, a comedy in which the ladies of society appear in the roles of the stronger sex.

A Simple and Inexpensive Home Method

If your hair is not fluffy, soft and lustrous, is falling out, streaked, faded, brittle, or full of dandruff, do not think it must always be that way, for pretty hair is only a matter of care and proper nourishment of the hair roots.

A scientific preparation called Parisian Sage sold by Rowland Bros. and at drug counters, supplies just the elements needed to invigorate the hair roots and stimulate the hair to grow long, thick, fluffy, soft and lustrous. It removes all dandruff and quickly stops itching head and falling hair. It is the ideal hair tonic and scalp treatment for men, women and children—contains nothing injurious, is inexpensive and easily used at home.

You will not be disappointed with this helpful toilet necessity, for it surely gives the hair beauty and charm.

OUR PURPLE GRACKLE.

Paradoxically our purple grackle is a blackbird. The law has proscribed him because the farmers say he is a corn thief. So he is, occasionally, but often when he appears to be thieving he is only on an expedition after the cut-worms. The grackle, however, steals the eggs or the young of the song birds and therefore he is despised and condemned by most folks.

We confess to a sneaking liking for the purple grackle. He is a lory sort of a fellow and he loves to stalk across the lawn with the sun shining full on him and dyeing his robes in bronze and Tyrian purple. In the shade the grackle is black; in the sun he is iridescent. All the other birds hate the crow and the bluejay—master thieves and tyrants both. One reason, perhaps, for our championship of the grackle is that most men and most birds are against him. Sympathy blinds the eyes to the sins of the despoiler.

In no state of the union is the grackle protected by law, and yet he holds his own. The scientists do not grant him the brain development of jay, crow, magpie or jackdaw, but he is a clever fellow for all that. Seemingly he knows that he is an outlaw, but also seemingly he knows that in certain places firearms are outlaws. So he goes with his mate to the parks and to the cemeteries, and there in evergreens and occasionally in the other trees the nests are builded and the young are raised.

The purple grackle has resplendent, sunlit raiment, but he has no jewel in his throat. His voice is that of the rusty hinge when the blind or the gate swings in the November wind. He is an outcast and tuneless. But he is all-freely interesting.—Chicago Post.

THE GERMAN SITUATION CLEARING.

The Imperial Government has at last allowed the light to sift in and apparently is beginning to view the claims of the United States regarding the submarine warfare against American ships and passengers in the right manner. Those high in German circles say that under no circumstances will Germany allow its friendly relations with the U. S. become broken because of its submarine policy. Those who know Mr. Wilson also know that under no circumstances will he allow this nation to be drawn into war if there is an honorable way of avoiding it, so war does not seem very menacing just now, in spite of the way Colonel Roosevelt talks.

JUMPING THEIR BOARD BILLS.

The convicts at Joliet penitentiary are busy taking their summer vacations now. They are leaving in twos and threes and going mainly on auto tours. The fresh air must seem good to the boys after their irksome confinement. Joliet will no doubt become one of the most popular winter resorts if the present beneficent attitude of the guards toward the prisoners maintains. The new jailor must be the soft-hearted old thing.

Colonel Roosevelt used to be called "The Man of Destiny." If he keeps on with his jingo speeches and rash advice, he is "destined" for oblivion so far as the public eye is concerned.

Lee county is keeping very still and quiet that no hoof and mouth germs may discover her. One siege of that was enough to last a long, long time, thank you.

LINK ARMS PLOT AND DEAD PASTOR

ser has exercised a close influence over the women of his flock, but they ascribed this to his eloquence and religious power.

The investigation centered upon the inner squabbles between the minister and his male followers, many of whom recently had withdrawn from the church. Kayser himself, on the evening of the murder, had said he had four enemies and if any harm came to him it would be from them.

His widow told the police: "The men who wrote my husband anonymous letters killed him. I feared it for days. Every time he left the house I waited in fear. He was not afraid. But I knew it—I felt it."

A promissory note for $1,500, signed by the pastor, fell due in May and nothing has been paid on it. The note is held now by the Colonial Trust and Savings bank of Chicago. It was endorsed by John Fink, Henry Gartner, Michael Krause, John Schneider, Andrew Hartmann and Michael Shiebel, all members of Kayser's congregation.

Fink was president of the St. John's congregation and is now the head of the Saxon Verein. He withdrew from the church after quarreling with Kayser regarding the policies of the Verein.

Had Called Kayser a "Pig." It was Fink who called Kayser a "schwein" (pig) to Mrs. Krause, the woman mentioned in anonymous letters, and wife of John Krause, also an endorser of the note.

BRYAN IS KISSED BY GERMAN ENTHUSIAST

Bewhiskered Farmer Gets Affectionate Over Peace Talk.

Wichita, Kas., Aug. 27.—Stirred by an eloquent peace appeal, John Graber, a big German farmer living near Murdock, Kas., kissed William J. Bryan at the conclusion of the former secretary's address at Kingman.

Surprised by the suddenness of the act, the colonel had no opportunity to sidestep, and when the kiss had been planted squarely on the commoner's mouth, he backed away, blushing like a girl.

Cheers and hand clapping by 3,000 who saw the kiss allowed Bryan to recover his composure.

Graber, large and bewhiskered, then explained:

"Mr. Bryan, I have read your paper for years and have admired you. I made up my mind that if ever I got a chance to see you I would kiss you. When I saw you were coming here I knew that my wish would be fulfilled, and it has been."

UNITED STATES IN SORRY PREDICAMENT

IF ATTACKED BY ONE OF SIX GREATEST NATIONS OF EUROPE, SAYS DUNNE.

HAS PLANS TO REMEDY EVIL

(Associated Press)

Boston, Aug. 27.—Gov. Edward F. Dunne of Illinois advised greater military and naval preparedness in his address at the Governor's Conference here today. In part he said:

"Since the commencement of the tremendous war now waging in Europe, and the danger of our country being embroiled therein, all classes of people in the republic have been seriously considering the unpreparedness for war which seems to exist in our country.

"If war were to be declared against this country by one of the six greatest nations of Europe it must be conceded that the United States in its present condition of land and naval forces would be in a sorry predicament. For offensive warfare our land forces are so small as to be regarded with ridicule. Our naval armament might succeed for a time in damaging cities and fortifications upon the sea-coast of a possible enemy in Europe, but separated so far as we would be from the base of supplies such offensive naval warfare could not be of lasting duration.

"Indefensive naval warfare we might for a time make a creditable showing upon our own coasts; but if any of these great nations should effect a landing of any considerable army, for weeks at least such an invasion would be unopposed. This serious situation of affairs has given even the most ardent advocate of peace between the nations grave concern.

"The present militia of all the different states of the United States is wholly inadequate for the defense of the nation. In 1913 the total militia of the National Guards of all the states aggregated approximately one hundred and twenty thousand men. Such a number of men would be inadequate for the defense of the nation in case of war with any first class power.

"To rely upon the regular army of one hundred thousand men, and a militia of one hundred and twenty thousand men in case of war with any first class power would be an act of supreme folly. The citizen soldiery of the republic must be reorganized, regenerated and enormously increased. There should be at least a body of citizen soldiery trained to the use of arms, organized and maintained in the different states of the United States in the aggregate of at least two million men. How can this be accomplished without imposing too great a hardship upon its members and upon the tax payers of the nation? It can be accomplished by the adoption of two measures.

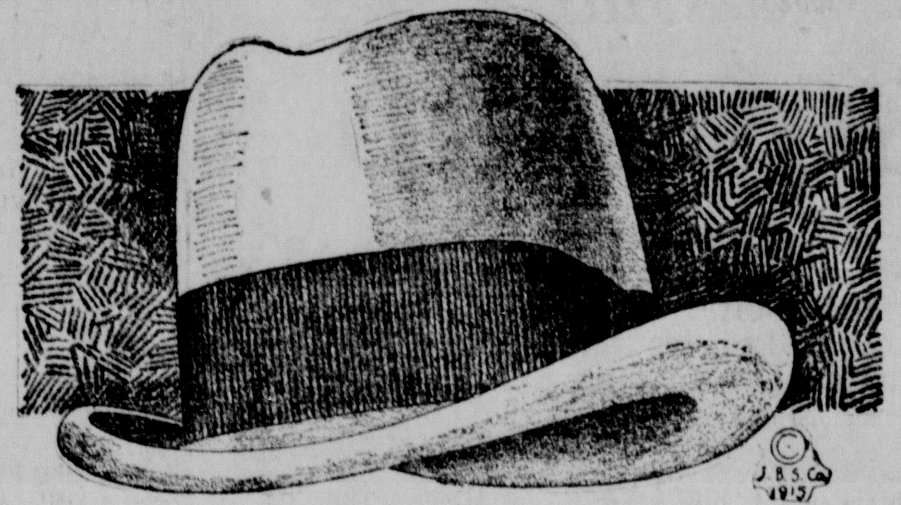

"First. By requiring every college and university in the United States which receives from any state or from the federal government any support or appropriation of money, to give a military training to its students during the four years of the course. As a part of the physical and mental education, as part of his curriculum, to devote sufficient time to enable him to become a well informed soldier in time of war. This can easily be accomplished, as proven by what has already been accomplished in some of the universities.

"One of the greatest needs of the British and Russian armies at present is trained officers to take charge of the enlisted men. We should profit by the examples furnished in this awful war prevailing in Europe. For defensive purposes at least we should have an adequate number of well drilled men, graduates of our educational institutions who could in case of war take charge of and whip into shape the soldiers who would fly to the defense of their country's integrity. "Another method of increasing the number and efficiency of our state militia would be for the federal government to make more liberal appropriations for their maintenance. On the average the militiamen of Illinois do not receive to exceed fifteen dollars a year and that only when he is in active service.

"This beggarly allowance is not attractive to the ordinary farmer, mechanic or clerk. "All of this should be changed, if a militiaman were paid one dollar for every night he spent in military training in his drill hall or arsenal with a provision that he would receive no compensation unless he attended at least forty nights during the year. I believe that instead of 120 militiamen we would have 1,500,000 or 2,000,000."

Health and Beauty go with a GOSSARD

THE two things which every Gossard Corset gives to every woman are better health and an added beauty. Health because every organ in the body is insured against displacement through the front-lacing principle.

Beauty because the lines of the figure are youthful and harmonious.

Millions of women today wear Gossard Corsets. Thousands of doctors prescribe and recommend them, and thousands of couturiers insist on their customers wearing them before designing the new gown or suit.

Tall women and short women, heavy or slight—in fact any living type of woman can be fitted to a Gossard Corset at prices ranging from $2.00, $3.50 up to $10.

A Fitting by our trained corsetiers does not obligate you in the least. Phone for a fitting appointment, or call today.

AVIATORS TELL FOE FATE OF COMRADES

MARKED CHIVALRY EXISTS IN AERIAL CORPS OF OPPOS-
ING ARMIES

British Army Headquarters in France, Aug. 10.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press)—"Though it has been repeatedly stated that chivalry does not exist in this war," said a British aviator, "this does not apply to the British and German aviation branches. Whether it is the individualism of our work and its novelty, or whatever it is that is responsible, something of the old spirit of knighthood maintains among the riders of the air. When a British aviator has to descend in the German lines whether from engine trouble or because his engine or his plane has been damaged by anti-aircraft guns, fire, the next day the Germans report to us his name and whether he survived and if so whether he is wounded. We always do the same. It has come to be a custom."

The reports are made in a manner worthy of airmen and they are the only communications that ever pass between the two foes which watch for heads to snipe at from their trenches. What is called a "message bag," is dropped over the British lines by a German or over the German lines by a British aviator—some times when he is in the midst of bursting shells from the anti-aircraft guns. Long streamers are attached to the little cloth bag. These as the parachute down to the earth from a height of seven or eight thousand feet attract the attention of soldiers in the neighborhood and they run out to get the prize when it lands.

It is taken to battalion headquarters, which wires the fact on to the aviation headquarters where the fate of a comrade may be known a few hours after he has left his home aerodrome; and, in another few hours, someone in England may know the fate of a relative.

COUSIN MEETS YOUTH THOUGHT TO BE DEAD

Lad, Whose Father Identified
Him as Corpse, Is Alive.

Decatur, Ill., Aug. 27.—George Philip Zeppenfeld, eighteen years old, met his cousin, Miss Alpha Davis, on the street here, although supposed to have been buried in Jacksonville, July 1.

Zeppenfeld left Rockford June 10, for Milwaukee. On June 29 a man was shot or committed suicide in Rockford, who was identified through an electrician's card he carried in his pocket, as Zeppenfeld. Henry W. Zeppenfeld, his father, went to Rockford, accepted the identification and took the body back with him to be buried.

When the boy's cousin saw him, she passed by. An hour later, worrying over the possibility, she started out to look for him, meeting him in front of a picture show. Zeppenfeld readily admitted his identity, but had no knowledge of his supposed death and burial. He said that after leaving Rockford he went to Milwaukee, and through Minnesota, taking a trip west.

Bellevue, Ohio.—"I was in a terrible state before I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. My back ached until I thought it would break. I had pains all over me, nervous feelings and periodic troubles. I was very weak and run down and was losing hope of ever being well and strong. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I improved rapidly and today am a well woman. I cannot tell you how happy I feel and I cannot say too much for your Compound. Would not be without it in the house if it cost three times the amount."—Mrs. CHAS. CHAPMAN, R. F. D. No. 7, Bellevue, Ohio.

Woman's Precious Gift.

The one which she should most zealously guard, is her health, but it is the one most often neglected, until some ailment peculiar to her sex has fastened itself upon her. If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

SCHOFIELD HOTEL AND COTTAGES

This popular resort is almost as well known as the Dells. It has been entertaining summer guests for forty years, and has lately been enlarged in capacity by the erection of a large modern building, fully equipped with every modern convenience, and affording dining room, assembly parlors, etc. This is an addition to the popular cottage plan, and adds to the previous popular attractions of the older system. The hotel and cottages are in extensive grounds, delightfully shaded by large oaks, and being away from the river is most especially desirable for families with children. The location is in the edge of Kilbourn on a pretty resident street, but a pleasant walk from the river and depot, and with regular free bus and carriage service to these points. The large hotel is not surpassed in this locality in point of modern style and comfort. The annex cottages and grounds make it altogether everything that anybody would desire. The test of efficiency is in the table. This hotel is especially noted for its excellent table board. Fresh butter, eggs, vegetables and fruit are supplied daily from the farm, and its preparation by a professional chef is perfect; chicken dinners twice a week.

Rates: $2 per day, $12 per week, half rates for children; rates made to family for week or longer. Rooms with bath must be applied for in advance.

Free use of garage.

Robert Morris—"Financier of the Revolution"

IT HAS BEEN SAID the three very great men of our War for Independence were Washington, Franklin and Morris. In the history of mankind no man ever had a more arduous commission than did Morris in financing the armies of Washington. The credit of the nation was practically valueless, and time after time it was the personal credit of Morris which brought forth the money. The financial means raised from his own private resources made the victory at Trenton possible. When Washington proposed the capture of Lord Cornwallis and his entire army, it was from Morris, the patriot and private citizen, and not from the treasury of the Confederate States from which the money came. Thus Washington's last great victory was made possible, and the long and bloody struggle for National Independence brought to an end. Morris was the first to suggest our present system of National banks—the best banking system that any nation has ever known. He was the first American to send a ship forth flying the Stars and Stripes. Like Franklin he signed both the Declaration of Independence and the Constitution of the United States. He was very hospitable, and whenever Washington visited Philadelphia he was the guest of Morris. He was ever a moderate user of light wines and barley brews, and opposed Prohibition Laws, which make the many suffer for the faults of the few. For 58 years Anheuser-Busch have been brewing the kind of honest barley-malt and Saazer hop brews which the wisdom of Morris knew make for real temperance. To-day at the home of BUDWEISER 7500 people are daily required to meet the natural public demand. BUDWEISER'S ever-increasing popularity comes from quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor. Its sales exceed any other beer by millions of bottles.

REBUKE TO WOOD ANGRERS COLONEL

Roosevelt Makes Hot Retort to Garrison's Reprimand.

PLATTSBURG TALK IS CAUSE

New York, Aug. 27.—Colonel Roosevelt rallied to the support of General Leonard Wood, who is under fire from the war department for permitting the colonel to make his Plattsburg speech attacking the administration. He issued a statement in which he said that Secretary Garrison could not have been ignorant of Colonel Roosevelt's announced intention of speaking at the camp and that not having made any objection to his going, Mr. Garrison should not criticize General Wood "because I was there or because I did not submit my speech in advance to the administration for approval."

Colonel Roosevelt said that in his speech he had not once mentioned the president or the administration and then delivered a broadside by saying that if the administration had displayed one-tenth the spirit and energy in holding Germany and Mexico to account for American lives that it is now showing in trying to prevent the people from being taught the need of preparedness it would be rendering a real service to the people of the country. It was evident as Colonel Roosevelt dictated his statement in the offices of the Metropolitan magazine that he was greatly moved by the attack on General Wood and wished to do anything he could to remove the unpleasant situation in which General Wood has found himself as the result of Colonel Roosevelt's visit to the camp. They have been fast friends for years.

Wood Severely Reprimanded. Washington, Aug. 27.—Major General Leonard Wood of the United States army was severely reprimanded by Secretary of War Garrison for permitting Theodore Roosevelt to deliver to the business men in the military camp at Plattsburg, N. Y., the sensational speech in which Mr. Roosevelt denounced the Wilson administration for its failure to put through a big military program at the last session of congress. Mr. Roosevelt's utterances in criticism of the administration's military policy excited great anger in official circles, and following a conference at the White House Secretary Garrison telegraphed the reprimand to General Wood.

There is a possibility that General Wood may be further punished by detachment from the office of commandant of the department of the east. It is even suggested that the former chief of staff may be court martialed for speeches that he has delivered in which he is said to have violated the proclamation issued by the president prohibiting army and naval officers from discussing questions bearing either directly or indirectly on the European war.

Warning to Wood. In his telegram to General Wood the secretary of war warns General Wood not to give further opportunity at Plattsburg for discussion of military topics.

"I have just seen the reports in the newspapers of the speech made by ex-President Roosevelt at the Plattsburg camp. It is difficult to conceive of anything which could have a more detrimental effect upon the real value of this experiment than such an incident."

"This camp, held under government auspices, has successfully demonstrated many things of great moment. Its virtue consisted in the fact that it conveyed its own impressive lesson in its practical and successful operation and results. No opportunity should have been furnished to anyone to present to the men any matter excepting that which was essential to the necessary training they were there to receive. Anything else could only have the effect of distracting attention from the real nature of the experiment, diverting consideration to issues which excite controversy antagonism and ill feeling, and thereby impairing, if not destroying what otherwise would have been so effective."

Whether further action will be taken in the Wood case probably will be determined by President Wilson. It is altogether possible that the offense of which complaint is made may be noted against General Wood's name in the efficiency records of the war department.

Bar Roosevelt at Cleveland. Cleveland, Aug. 27.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt will be barred from addressing Cleveland's civilian military camp, to be opened at Chagrin Falls if federal officials express disapproval of Colonel Roosevelt's "war" speech made at the Plattsburg training camp. This announcement was made by Capt. H. P. Shupe, president of the trustees of the Cleveland Grays. The Grays are back of the local camp project. "I believe as Roosevelt that we should be prepared for war, but I do not approve of his criticism of the administration's policy," said Captain Shupe.

County Prosecutor Locher, the first "recruit" to sign for camp training, said that he will resign if Roosevelt or anyone else is brought here to stir up agitation for war.

QUESTION CLEARED UP

DIXON READERS CAN NO LONGER DOUBT THE EVIDENCE

Again and again we have read of strangers in distant towns who have been cured by this or that medicine. But Dixon's pertinent question has always been "Has any one here in Dixon been cured?" The word of a stranger living a hundred miles away may be true, but it cannot have the same weight with us as the word of our own citizens, whom we know and respect, and whose evidence we can so easily prove.

F. K. Cnare, tailor, 1204 First St., Dixon, says: "I had a dull ache in the small of my back, right across my kidneys. I had heard Doan's Kidney Pills highly recommended, so I got some at Leake Bros. Co.'s Drug Store. They removed the pains in my back and I have had no trouble since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Cnare had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

MEXICANS RAID U. S. RANCH

Twenty-four Men, Supposed Villistas, Rob and Burn and Escape.

El Paso, Aug. 27.—Following the recent trouble on the lower Rio Grande between Americans and Mexicans and the discovery of a plot in El Paso by Mexicans to rise up and loot and kill, armed Mexicans crossed the border near Columbus, N. M., attacked and looted the ranch of C. L. Moody, on the American side, and then burned all the houses on the ranch.

People from the vicinity of the raid reported the affair here. They said the Mexicans numbered twenty-four and that they all were armed and apparently were a part of a Mexican military command believed to be Villistas. The Mexicans, after robbing and burning the ranch houses are said to have fled back into Mexico.
